Case No.: 3:23-cv-00478
JURY DEMAND

FIRST AMENDED ANSWER BY DEFENDANT SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

Defendant Southern Baptist Convention (the “SBC”), for its First Amended Answer to the Complaint filed by Plaintiffs Michael David Sills and Mary Sills (“Plaintiffs”), states as follows:

1. These allegations contained in Paragraph 1 of the Complaint constitute legal conclusions or arguments. To the extent that the allegations are directed against the SBC, the SBC denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 1 of the Complaint.

2. The SBC denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 2 of the Complaint.

3. The SBC denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 3 of the Complaint.

4. The SBC lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 4 of the Complaint.

5. The SBC lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 5 of the Complaint.

6. The SBC lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 6 of the Complaint.

7. The SBC lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 7 of the Complaint.

8. The SBC lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 8 of the Complaint.

9. The SBC denies that Michael David Sills was an employee of the SBC. The SBC lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the truth of the remainder of the allegations contained in Paragraph 9 of the Complaint

10. The SBC denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 10 of the Complaint.

11. The SBC denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 11 of the Complaint.

12. The SBC admits that it faced allegations that it had improperly ignored reports of sexual abuse. The SBC denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 12 of the Complaint.

13. The SBC denies the allegations contained in Paragraph 13 of the Complaint.

14. The SBC lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 14 of the Complaint.

15. The SBC lacks information sufficient to admit or deny the truth of the allegations contained in Paragraph 15 of the Complaint.

16. The SBC admits that Paragraph 16 of the Complaint accurately reflects language set forth in the SBC's Charter. The SBC also admits that the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention (the "EC") is incorporated in Georgia. The SBC denies the remaining allegations contained in Paragraph 16 of the Complaint.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. Plaintiff's claims are barred because this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over this action.
2. Plaintiff's claims are barred pursuant to the ecclesiastical abstention doctrine.
3. Plaintiff's claims are barred pursuant to the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.
4. Plaintiff's claims are barred pursuant to Article I, Section 19 of the Tennessee Constitution.
5. Plaintiff's claims are barred because any alleged statements made the basis of Plaintiff's claims were a matter of public concern.

6. Plaintiff's claims are barred because Plaintiff cannot attribute any tortious conduct to the SBC.

7. The SBC adopts and relies upon the doctrine of comparative fault. To the extent the SBC is found to be at fault, which is denied, any fault by the SBC should be reduced by the percentage of fault attributable to the negligent acts or omissions of other persons or parties, including but not limited to the Plaintiff and/or Guidepost.

8. Plaintiff's defamation claim is barred because the alleged defamatory statements are true and/or substantially true.

9. Plaintiff's defamation claim is barred because Plaintiff is a public figure and/or limited purpose public figure.

10. Plaintiff's defamation claim is barred because any statements that were made were privileged.

11. Plaintiff's invasion of privacy claim is barred because the alleged information made the subject of this claim is a matter of public concern and/or of public record and/or Plaintiff is a public figure and/or limited purpose public figure.

12. Plaintiff's intentional infliction of emotional distress claim is barred because the conduct complained of was not intentional or reckless, was not outrageous, and did not cause Plaintiff serious mental injury.

13. Plaintiff's intentional infliction of emotional distress claim is barred because the alleged information made the subject of this claim is a matter of public concern and/or of public record and/or Plaintiff is a public figure and/or limited purpose public figure.

14. Plaintiff's negligent infliction of emotional distress claim is barred because Plaintiff cannot establish any element of a negligence claim or that such negligence was the cause in fact and proximate cause of damages, if any, sustained by Plaintiff.

15. Plaintiff's public disclosure claim is barred because the alleged statements were a matter of public concern.

16. Plaintiff's claims are barred because Plaintiff has failed to mitigate his damages, if any.

17. To the extent Plaintiff has suffered any damages, his acknowledged improper conduct was the sole proximate cause of the harms alleged.

18. To the extent any noneconomic damages are awarded, the damages are capped pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-39-102.

19. To the extent any punitive and/or exemplary damages are awarded, those damages are capped pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-39-104.

20. To the extent any punitive and/or exemplary damages are awarded, those damages are barred because they would violate due process.

21. Insofar as one or more of Plaintiffs' claims are based upon retweets or other similar internet activity, those claims are barred by immunity and/or preemption under Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act.

JURY DEMAND

The SBC demands a trial by jury.

PRAYER

The SBC, having fully answered the Complaint, prays as follows:

1. That the Complaint be dismissed with prejudice;
2. That the SBC be awarded attorneys' fees and costs incurred in defending the Complaint; and
3. That the SBC be awarded such other and further general and equitable relief to which it is entitled.

DATED: March 17, 2025.
